

MEDIA ALERT!

For Immediate Release

Contact: Skye McDonald or Sarah Fuller

wacharrisburg@gmail.com

\(717\) 221-1627221-1627)

Feb. 20, 2017

World Affairs Council of Harrisburg Holds First Annual Travel Conference and Fair

HARRISBURG – Mexico and the United Arab Emirates will be featured countries at the World Affairs Council of Harrisburg's first Travel Conference & Fair that will be held 10 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 25, 2017 at the Conference Center of Central Penn College in Summerdale.

Consul General Majid al Suwaidi will be featured luncheon speaker at the conference, along with Mexican Consular representative Carlos E. Torres-Corona.

The conference also will feature an opening panel on practical information for travelers, including health and safety tips, tourism hotspots, educational travel and study abroad. Speakers will include:

- Christine Frazier – American Automobile Association – Travel Safety and Travel Trends
- Chuck Sawicki –Road Scholar — Educational and Adventure Travel
- Dr. Casey Pinto –Pinnacle Health -Travel & Health
- Iris Franklin — Youth For Understanding – Study Abroad and Youth Service Travel
- Rick Dunlap – Hershey Harrisburg Regional Visitors Bureau — Staycations and Travel Closer to Home

Travel-related companies will have exhibits at the conference and include the World Affairs Council of America, BCA Study Abroad, Amtrak, HIA, CIEE, Youth for Understanding USA, Temple University, Elizabethtown College, the Latino Hispanic American Community Center, Road Scholar, Travel Simplicity, Pinnacle Health, the Hershey Harrisburg Regional Visitors Bureau and others.

For more information, go to www.wacharrisburg.org or contact Skye McDonald at wacharrisburg@gmail.com.

###