

ABSALOM JONES CONTEST & DR. GEORGE H. LOVE YOUTH AWARDS CEREMONY

SPONSORED BY THE BISHOP BAXTER CHAPTER, UNION OF BLACK EPISCOPALIANS

This contest is your chance to learn about Rev. Absalom Jones, an inspiring leader who never gave up—even when life was very difficult. His story shows how faith, courage, and determination can help change the world.

CONTEST THEME | “Keep Going, No Matter What” — A motto inspired by Reginald F. Lewis

WHO WAS ABSALOM JONES?

- Born in 1746
- Enslaved during the Revolutionary War
- Bought his freedom in 1784
- Became a community leader and abolitionist
- First African American priest in the Episcopal Church

Absalom Jones faced many obstacles, but he kept going. Through prayer, planning, preparation, and perseverance, he made a lasting difference in Philadelphia through both church and community service.

WHY THIS THEME MATTERS

The phrase “Keep Going, No Matter What”—inspired by Reginald F. Lewis—reminds us that challenges don’t have to stop us. Absalom Jones lived this message by continuing forward even when the odds were against him.

YOUR CHALLENGE

Think about these questions as you work on your entry:

- What social justice issues matter to you today?
- Which ones deserve your time and attention?
- How will you keep going toward your goals?
- How does Absalom Jones’s life inspire you?

Be sure to include examples from Absalom Jones’s life that show how he kept going—even when it wasn’t easy.

You have a voice. You can make a difference. Keep going—no matter what.

ABSALOM JONES CONTEST SUBMISSION FORM

The Absalom Jones Contest & Dr. George H. Love Youth Awards Ceremony, sponsored by the Union of Black Episcopalians, offers students an opportunity to reflect on the legacy of Rev. Absalom Jones, a leader in the struggle for freedom and justice. Students are invited to explore how Jones's journey—from enslaved person to community leader and the first priest of African descent in the Episcopal Church—can inspire their own responses to human rights challenges today. It provides a platform for youth to share their insights and inspire others to "keep going" in pursuit of justice and freedom.
